

Iron County Website Accessibility Statement

Last Updated: 11/19/2025

Iron County is committed to ensuring that our website — <https://ironcountyut.gov/> — is accessible to all residents, visitors, and users, including individuals with disabilities. We strive to provide a positive user experience for everyone by meeting or exceeding the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 AA.

Our Commitment

We are actively working to improve the accessibility and usability of our website. Our efforts include:

- Designing pages with proper structure, headings, and labels
- Providing text alternatives for images and non-text content
- Ensuring readable text, adequate color contrast, and scalable fonts
- Making all interactive elements keyboard-accessible
- Providing accessible PDF documents whenever feasible
- Conducting regular accessibility scans, audits, and updates
- Training county staff on accessibility best practices

Iron County is dedicated to ongoing improvement and welcomes feedback to help ensure equal access for all users.

Accessibility Assistance

If you use assistive technology (such as a screen reader, text magnifier, voice recognition software, or switch device) and have difficulty accessing any part of our website, please contact us so we can assist you promptly.
